Themes explored: tolerating differences, acceptance, understanding and celebrating diversity

My Wonderful Birthday Suit
by Gloria Bond Clunie
Recommended for ages 4 and older

Summary of My Wonderful Birthday Suit
A surprise birthday party gives three children something truly amazing to celebrate - their differences.

Rainbows, moonbeams and a bit of birthday magic make for a super-fun party! But friendships are questioned when judgments and comments about skin color slip out. By sharing experiences, the children learn important lessons about understanding and acceptance that pave the way to forgiveness. This spectacular story told with music, an awesome puppet named Bobo the bird and the wonder of a magical Thinking Tree will give everyone something to ponder. Each of us is a gift “wrapped” in our own unique way but it’s what’s on the inside that truly makes us special. This powerful conversation-starter proves that you’re never too young (or too old) to be kind.

The BIG QUESTIONS about the show
1. At the birthday party the characters learn that words can hurt. What words hurt the characters in the play and why? Why did Ooblahdah say things about the color of Shebopshebe’s skin? How do you think that made Shebopshebe feel and why?
2. The Thinking Tree is a key part of this story? What makes the Thinking Tree so important? What are the characters able to do at the Thinking Tree that help them?
3. One of the characters says that they are sorry for the words they said. Why is it important to say you are sorry? What could have happened if the character didn’t say they were sorry?

Meet the cast
Will Burton-Edwards  Reneé Welsh-Noel  Courtney Reasoner

Resource Guide | for Educators and Audiences

We include information about our production along with creative activities to make connections both before and after the show. For educators, all activities are aligned to the North Carolina Essential Standards as well as the Common Core Standards and National Core Art Standards for theatre. Look for the symbol below throughout the guide.

NCES-TheaArts.(K-5).TA.A.1: Analyze literary texts and performances. NCES-TheaArts.(K-5).TA.A.1.1: Recall the basic parts of a story, such as characters, setting, and events. National Theatre Anchor Standard 7: Perceive and analyze artistic work. National Theatre Anchor Standard 9: Apply criteria to evaluate artistic work.

NCES-TheaArts.(K-5).TA.A.1.2: Analyze the relationships between events, characters, and settings. NCES-Music.(K-5).MU.MR.1: Understand the interacting elements to respond to music and music performances. CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.SL.(K-5).2: Ask and answer questions about key details in a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media. National Theatre Anchor Standard 8: Interpret intent and meaning in artistic work.
Every play Children's Theatre of Charlotte produces is created by a talented team of designers, technicians, actors and a director. As a class, discuss what you experienced when you saw the performance.

1. Name three things you noticed about the set. Did the set help tell the story? What sort of set would you have designed?

2. What did you like about the costumes? Did the costumes help tell the story? What sort of costumes would you have designed?

3. What role did lighting play in telling the story? How did the lights enhance what you were seeing?

4. Talk about the actors. Were there moments you were so caught up in the story you forgot you were watching a play?

5. Were there any actors who played more than one character? What are some ways you can be the same person but play different characters?

For more activities like a bow-making tutorial and content surrounding this show, click here to access Children’s Theatre of Charlotte’s Pinterest boards.

Recommended Reading

If you enjoyed the show, check out these books at your local Charlotte Mecklenburg Library branch. Check availability at cmlibrary.org.

- The Skin You Live In by Michael Tyler
- Skin Again by Bell Hooks
- It’s Okay to Be Different by Todd Parr
- The Colors of Us by Karen Katz
- Shades of People by Shelley Rotner
- Side by Side by Rachel Bright
- Neither by Airlie Anderson
- Ribbit! by Rodrigo Folguera

About the playwright

Gloria Bond Clunie studied at Northwestern University (BS, Theater, MFA, Directing) in Evanston, Illinois, where she went on to become an award-winning playwright, director and educator. Gloria is a founding member of the Playwriting Ensemble at Chicago’s Regional Tony Award-winning Victory Gardens Theater where her plays North Star, Living Green and Shoes premiered. She is also the founding Artistic Director of Evanston’s Fleetwood-Jourdain Theatre. Awards include a Joseph Jefferson Award, a Scott McPherson, Theodore Ward African-American Playwriting Prizes, NEA and Illinois Arts Council Fellowships, the Children’s Theatre Foundation of America Medallion Award and the Evanston Mayor’s Award for the Arts. Earlier this year, she served as playwright and director for the premiere of My Wonderful Birthday Suit commissioned by Chicago Children’s Theatre.

NCES-TheaArts.4.TA.CU.2.2: Understand the role of the playwright in relation to script construction techniques, such as dialogue, protagonist, and antagonist. National Theatre Anchor Standard 11: Relate artistic ideas and works with societal, cultural, and historical context to deepen understanding.

Children’s Theatre of Charlotte receives support from the Infusion Fund, a partnership between the City of Charlotte, Foundation for The Carolinas and generous donors to support the arts and cultural sector.

This project was supported in part by and the North Carolina Arts Council, a division of the Department of Natural & Cultural Resources.