Summary of Shrek the Musical
Get ready to raise ‘em high as we join Shrek and his lovable sidekick Donkey for a musical adventure. Journey beyond the swamp in this fun-filled story about acceptance and love. It’s a celebration that will have you singing along, “What makes us special makes us strong!”

Audience expectations
You may wish to have a discussion with your students about their role as an audience member. Live theatre only exists when an audience is present; their energy and responses directly affect the actors in performance.

Younger audiences should know watching live theatre isn’t like watching more familiar forms of entertainment: there is no pause or rewind button, there are no commercials for bathroom breaks, and they can’t turn up the volume if someone else is talking. Encourage your students to listen and watch the play intently, so they may laugh and cheer for their favorite characters when it is appropriate. At the end of the play, your applause is an opportunity to thank the actors for their performance. Here are some other guidelines to remember as well:

• Respect others audience members. Stay seated and keep your hands to yourself.
• Please turn off all cell phones and other electronic devices during the performance.
• Photography and recording of the performance is prohibited by copyright law.
• We do not permit food and drinks in the theatre.

The BIG QUESTIONS about the show
1. Shrek asks us to look at beauty in a new way. What is beautiful to you? Can someone be beautiful on the outside and not beautiful on the inside? Can someone be beautiful on the inside which makes them more beautiful on the outside? How does who the person is change how you see their beauty?

2. The story of Shrek is told as a fairy tale and uses many familiar fairytales throughout. What different fairytales can you identify? How did Shrek change the view of those familiar fairytales? What changed in each in this re-telling?

3. It was difficult in the story for Shrek to express his feelings to Fiona. Why? Have you ever had a time where it was difficult for you to tell someone how you feel? Why do you think it was difficult for you?
Synopsis of Shrek

Set in a mythical “once upon a time” sort of land, Shrek the Musical is the story of a hulking green ogre who, after being mocked and feared his entire life by anything that crosses his path, retreats to an ugly green swamp to exist in happy isolation. Suddenly, a gang of homeless fairy-tale characters (Pinocchio, Cinderella, the Three Pigs, you name it) raid his sanctuary, saying they’ve been evicted by the vertically challenged Lord Farquaad. So Shrek strikes a deal: I’ll get your homes back, if you give me my home back! But when Shrek and Farquaad meet, the Lord strikes a deal of his own: He’ll give the fairy-tale characters their homes back, if Shrek recruits Princess Fiona. Shrek obliges, yet finds something appealing—something strange and different—about this pretty princess. He likes her. A lot. But why does she always run off when the sun sets?

Every play Children’s Theatre of Charlotte produces is created by a talented team of designers, technicians, actors and a director. As a class, discuss what you experienced when you saw the performance.

1. Name three things you noticed about the set. Did the set help tell the story? What sort of set would you have designed?
2. What did you like about the costumes? Did the costumes help tell the story? What sort of costumes would you have designed?
3. What role did lighting play in telling the story? How did the lights enhance what you were seeing?
4. Talk about the actors. Were there moments you were so caught up in the story you forgot you were watching a play?
5. Were there any actors who played more than one character? What are some ways you can be the same person but play different characters?
