Follow along the performance of Grace for President

Welcome to Woodrow Wilson Elementary School! These students are ready to learn today....maybe more than they realize.....

Meet Mrs. Barrington and her students! Let's find out what they're learning about today....

Since the class is learning about elections, let's meet some of our past Presidents! Grace has a very interesting question, though.

Grace has an announcement!

Mrs. Barrington really knows how to bring the fun to learning about democracy!

Grace has quite the list of qualifications - do you think she'll be ready to lead her class?

Uh-oh, Grace has an opponent in the election... What does everyone think about Thomas?

Grace is already starting off right by connecting with her classmates, or constituents!

Grace is worried about her qualifications against Thomas'.

Where are the girls??

Apparently boys stick together...

So, how exactly does voting work? The electoral college can be confusing...

Grace tries one more time to make sure voices are heard for action.....

It's time for Grace and Thomas to go after those votes. Who do you think is really listening to the people?

It's time for the election!

Let the voting begin!

Grace had a Star-Spangled Idea, and she WON!
What will the class get to do next?

Thanks for joining us at Children's Theatre of Charlotte for this special performance.
We hope to see you at our other sensory-friendly performances in the future.
