

SENSORY-FRIENDLY PERFORMANCE

CHILD'S GUIDE

Sunday, January 12 at 4 p.m.

The True Story of the Three Little Pigs

A musical comedy by Robert Kauzlaric, Paul Gilvary and William Rush
Based on the books by Jon Scieszka and Lane Smith

About the show

You know the story. Three pigs build houses, the one who builds with bricks avoids the Big Bad Wolf and lives to tell the tale. But is that what really happened, or just porcine propaganda? In this brilliant parody of the famous fairy tale, we follow the Big Bad Wolf as he stands trial for his purported deeds. He has his own version of the story – and the audience becomes the jury, helping decide his fate: guilty or not guilty! Based on John Scieszka’s wildly popular book, this courtroom-farce-meets-musical is sure to please...it would be a crime to miss it!

Show sponsors

Bank of America Foundation, CPI Security, Mitchell Kelling, Laura and Brian Murdock, Tammy Stringer and Richard Viola.

Special thanks to Julie Higginbotham of Precious Developments. Julie has worked as our consultant in the creation and preparation of our sensory-friendly performances. We’re grateful for this valued partnership.

Is the Big Bad Wolf really all that bad? He has a really different story to tell about what happened between him and the Three Little Pigs! This courtroom is about to come alive.....

From all of us at Children’s Theatre of Charlotte, we hope you enjoy the show.

Follow along the performance of The True Story of the Three Little Pigs

Meet Rocky, our friendly court bailiff. He's going to come out and tell you a few things about this production before it starts. Pay close attention throughout the show - you're going to have a special job at the end of this performance!

This is Magill, the newspaper piggy for the town of Piggsylvania! He knows there's a story to tell after the Big Bad Wolf finds himself in some trouble, and he's going after the truth.....

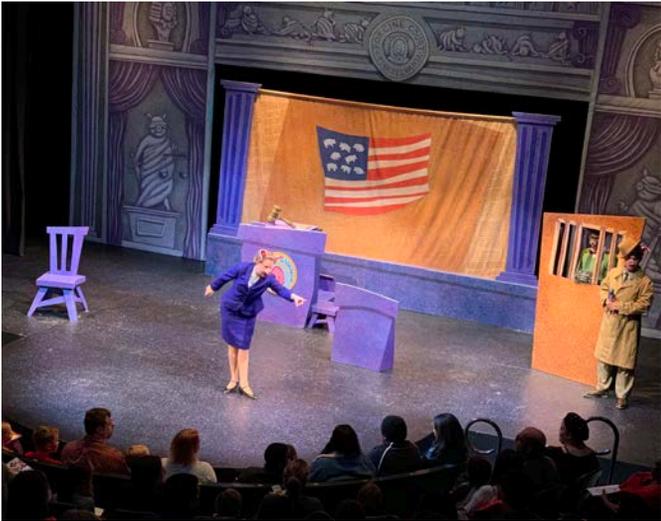

So this is the Big Bad Wolf, also known as Al. Do you think he's really all that Big and Bad? Maybe he is, but what if he isn't....

Magill wants you to meet Julia, the prosecuting pig who wants you to see just how Big and Bad AI really is.

OK, here's where you get to participate in this production.....you're in the jury! Pay close attention to the story, because you have a big moment coming up toward the end of this story.....

This is Judge Prudence. She's oink-tastic! But is she going to be fair?

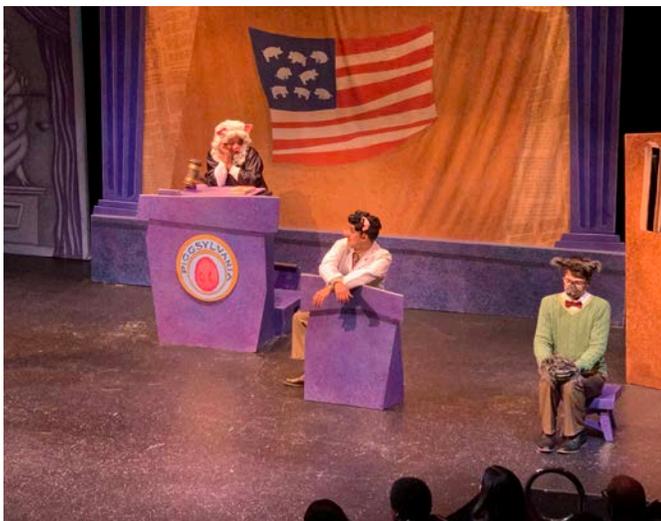

We're going to start with Julia's version of the story of the Three Little Pigs to show that AI really is a Big Bad Wolf.

How do you think AI feels about Julia's version of the story? Let's see how he sets up his side of the story. Remember, you're in the jury, so listen closely....

In a trial, the jury has to hear from witnesses, right? First on the list is Dr. Bobby. Do you think he's telling the truth?

Next up is Martha. She sure has an interesting take on this story..... Be ready for Julia to check in with you, the jury, to see what you think about Al's guilt or innocence!

Last on the witness list is Maxwell, the pig whose house was made of bricks. Julia and Al are both asking questions to see what he remembers. Judge Prudence will have some more instructions for you, the jury. What do you think about what she has to say?

Finally, Al gets to tell his side of the story with some help from Magill. Then you'll hear both sides give their closing summaries....kind of....

Alright, jury - it's time for you to decide whether AI is guilty or innocent! Rocky will show you how to vote, so get ready!

Thanks for joining us at Children's Theatre of Charlotte for this special performance.
Learn more and buy tickets to other sensory-friendly performances at ctcharlotte.org.
Click on Shows & Tickets and look for Accessibility & Inclusion.

Upcoming sensory-friendly performances include:

Akeelah and the Bee

Sunday, February 16 @ 7 p.m.

GRIMMZ Fairy Tales

Sunday, March 8 @ 4 p.m.

Dragons Love Tacos

Sunday, April 26 @ 4 p.m.

ctcharlotte.org