LET'S GO INSIDE

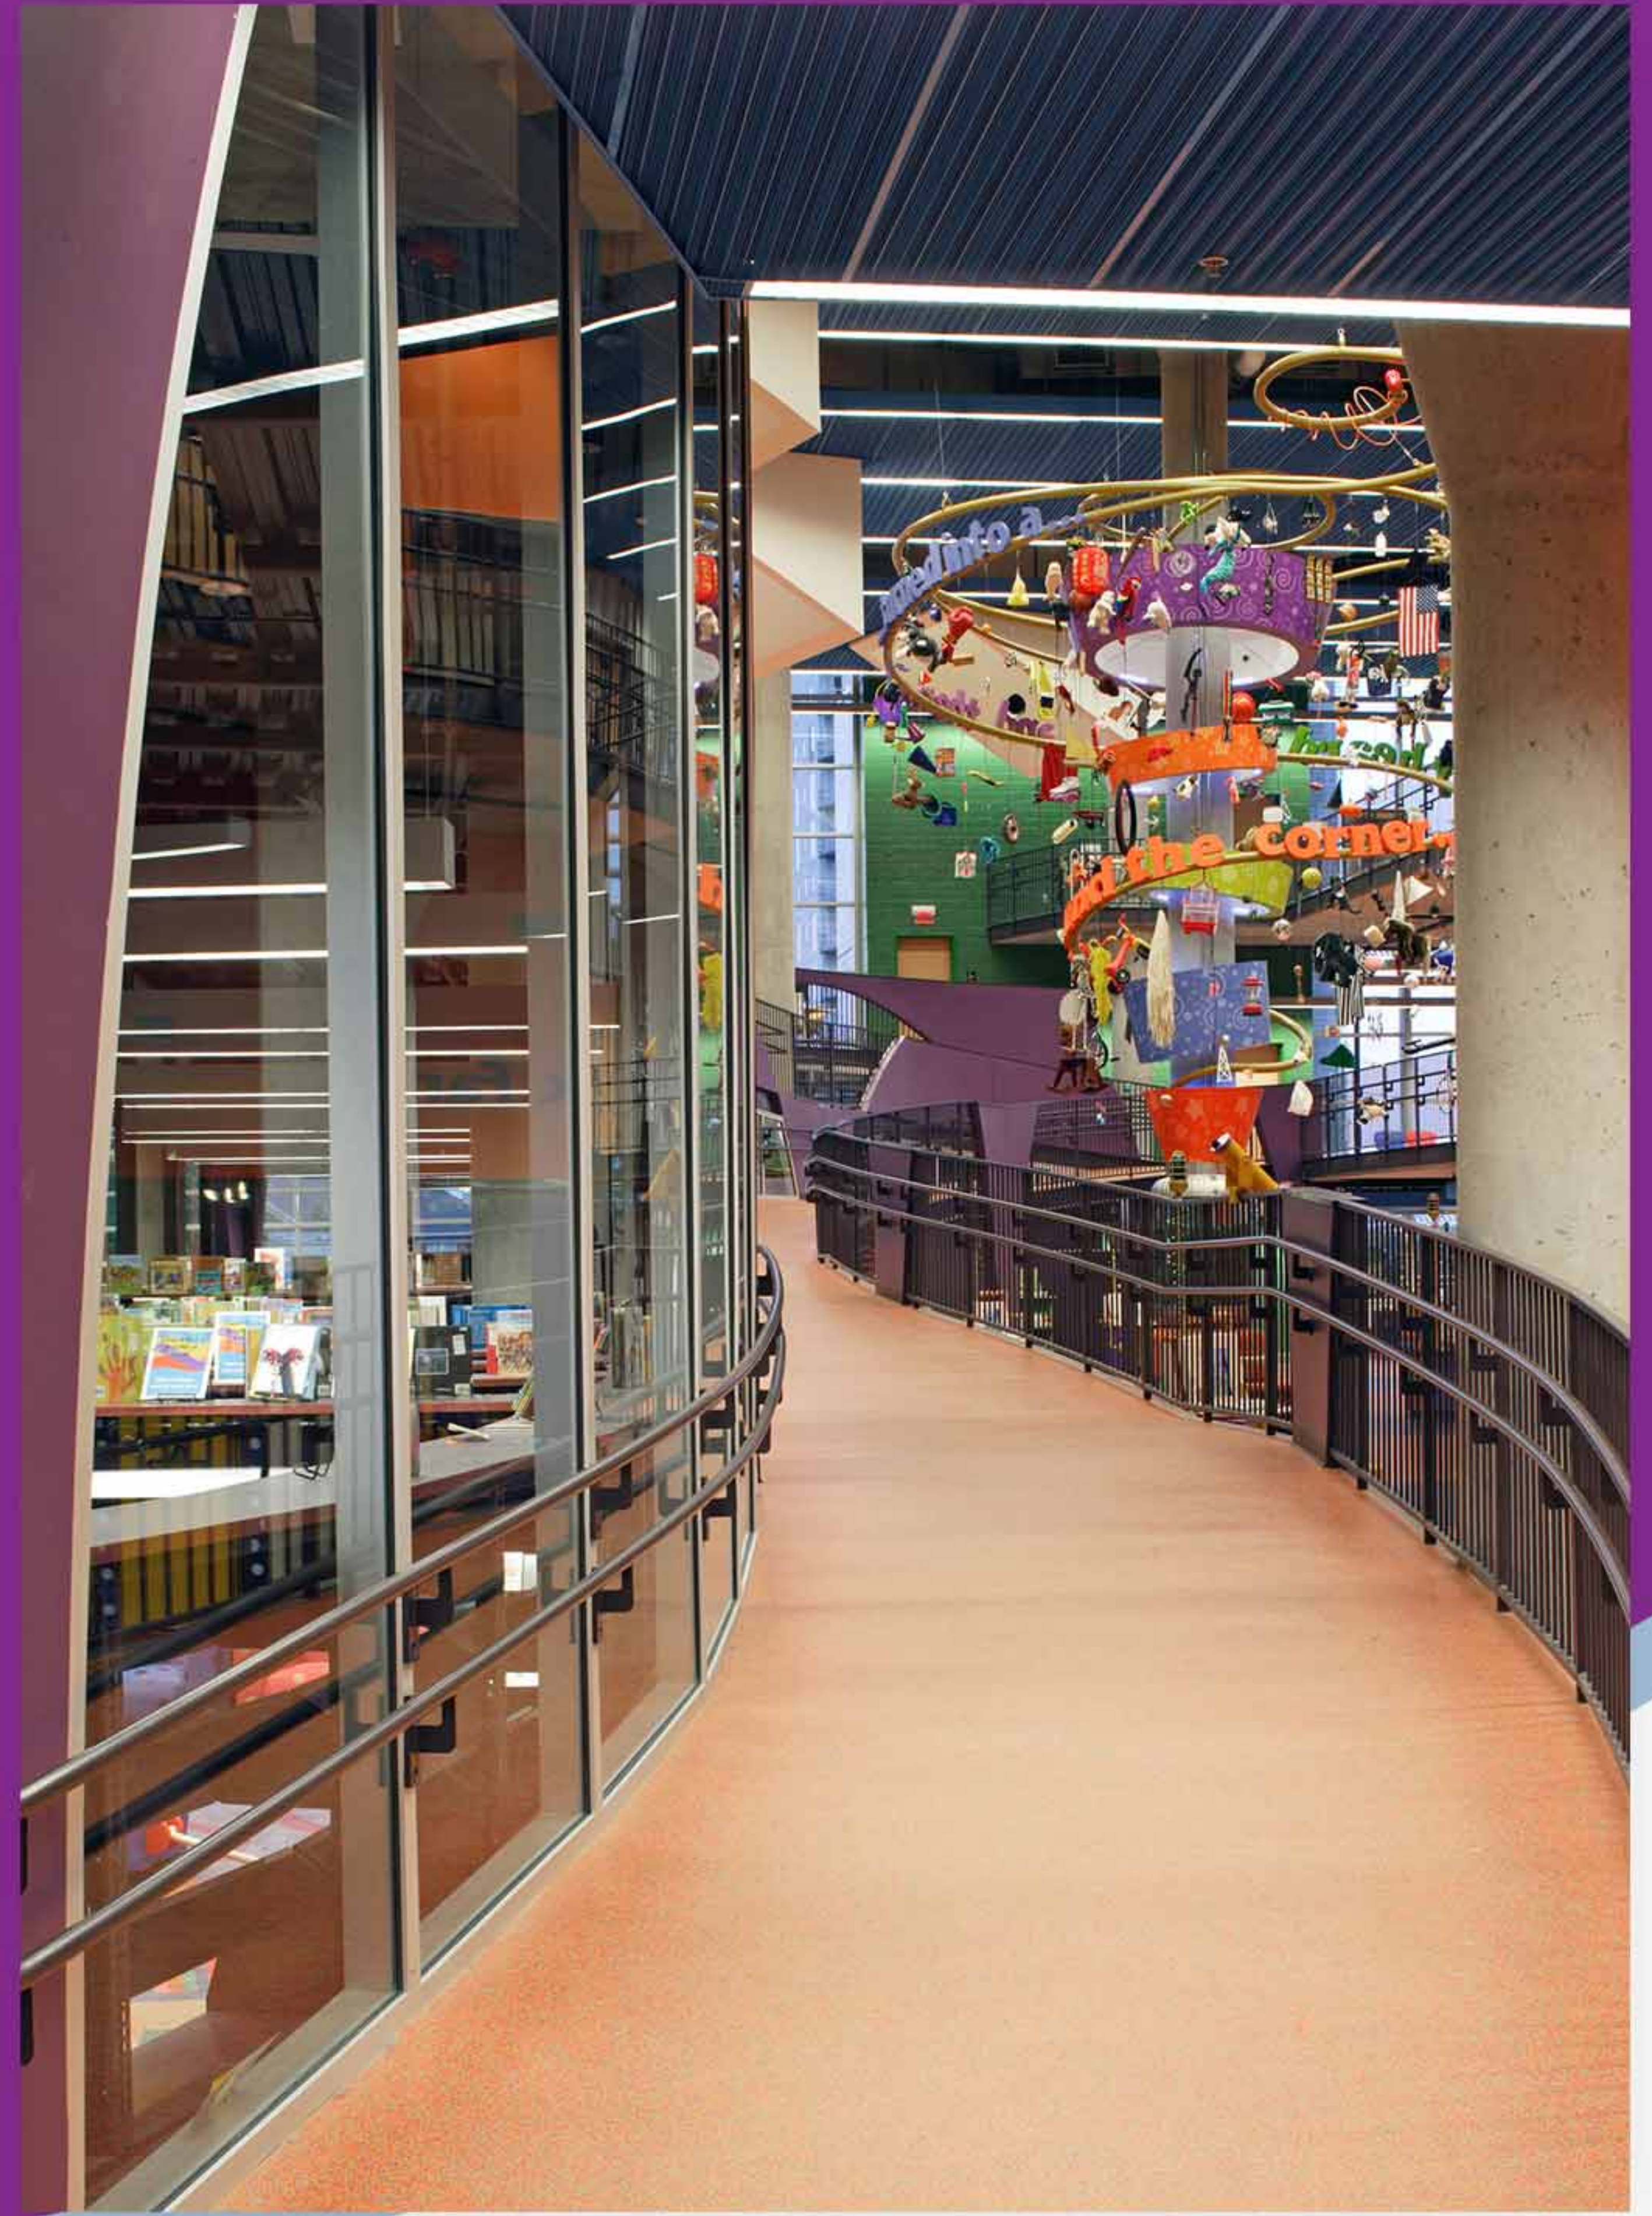

My family and I are going to watch a show at Children's Theatre of Charlotte at ImaginOn today.

SO MANY THINGS TO EXPLORE

Walking into ImaginOn, I will notice a lot of things to see and do. Not only does Children's Theatre have two theatres here, they also share a space with the Spangler Library.

LET'S PICK UP OUR TICKETS

We will visit the Box Office to pick up our tickets. Everyone at the Box Office is very friendly and helpful. They will let us know which theatre to go to for our show.

TWO THEATRE SPACES

Children's Theatre of Charlotte has two places for me to watch shows. The attendants at the Box Office will let me know if I should go to the McColl Family Theatre or the Wells Fargo Playhouse.

WHAT TO EXPECT

Sometimes we arrive early to read the Parent and Child Guides for the show we are watching while we wait for the house to open. We pick them up at the Sensory Table.

TIME TO SCAN OUR TICKETS

Once the house opens, the Usher scans our tickets and someone guides us to our seats. The Ushers and House Managers are always friendly.

PICK OUT WHAT I NEED

Before going to our seats, I can select any sensory, fidget, or weighted toy from the Sensory Table to bring to bring with me. I can also grab headphones if things get too loud.

SHOW TIME

We can sit anywhere we'd like in the theatre. I can even get up, dance, or safely move around the space. If we decide to pick new seats later in the show, that's okay too.

2 Glow Sticks = VERY Big Event

GLOW STICKS

The guides and glow sticks help me know when something surprising, loud, or big is about to happen so I can prepare however I need.

QUIET ROOM

If things get too much or I need to take a break, I can watch the show from the Quiet Room where I can adjust the volume and light in the room.
